The 9th Annual Austin Asian Occasion
Celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month

The Winners' Concert

An Evening of
"Classical Music Appreciation"

To Benefit
"Any Baby Can"
Empowering Families So Children Can Succeed

We are happy to announce that our 9th Annual Austin Asian Occasion (AAO) on Saturday, May 28, 2016 at the Asian American Cultural Center to support the mission of "Any Baby Can" was a success. This year, the Winners of our 8th Young Musician Festival gave exceptional performances to benefit the mission of Any Baby Can.

It is our belief that "Under the Sky, We Are One Community". We are delighted to present "Any Baby Can" with $8,210 in checks and cash on Wednesday, June 22, 2016. We are looking forward to organize our 10th Annual AAO celebration to be held in 2017.

About the organizers:

Asian American Cultural Center (AACC) was founded in 2000 and its mission is to provide the facilities, expertise and unique space for the sharing of culture between the East and the West in the American Experience. We achieve our mission through educational seminars and our multicultural early care and education Program, The Magic Dragon School. AACC is located at 11713 Jollyville Road, Austin, Texas. About our beneficiary this year: Any Baby Can

Any Baby Can is an Austin, Texas-based nonprofit organization whose mission is to empower families so children in Central Texas can succeed. They strengthen children and their families through education, therapy and family support services. Their services are provided through home-visitation programs, community classes and support groups.

Our Past Beneficiaries were:

Meals on Wheels, Ronald McDonald House, People's Community Clinic, KLRU, Texas School for the Deaf, UT School of Music, and Power for Parkinsons.
