Asian cultural performances of music & dance

The Harvest Moon Festival, the eighth full moon of the year is celebrated throughout Asia as a symbol of fullness and fruition.

This tradition will be continued on September 10, 2022 in-person. Please come join us for this celebration with different Asian dances, music and authentic festival food.

Lion Dance will be performed at noon

This year is also the 22nd Anniversary of the Asian American Cultural Center and Our Mission is:

“To provide the facilities, expertise and unique space for the sharing of culture between the East and the West in the American Experience.”
